JANUARY 2007

In our interview with Sir Jack Hayward, the chairman of Wolverhampton Wanderers, page 20, Sport, yesterday (August 11, 2003), we mistakenly attributed to him the following comment: "Our team was the worst in the First Division and I'm sure it will be the worst in the Premier League." Sir Jack had just declined the offer of a hot drink. What he actually said was: "Our tea was the worst in the First Division and I'm sure it will be the worst in the Premier League."

Profuse apologies.

Start the New Year with a smile!

I hope that the apology above, reprinted from The Guardian newspaper (aptly nicknamed The Graumiad by Private Eye magazine) makes you chuckle as much as I did when I first saw it in 2003.

*I wandered lonely as a Cloud
That floats on high o'er Vales and Hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.*

William Wordsworth
